

A pretty home wedding was solemnized in this city last Monday, Nov. 22, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hammer, when their daughter Emma was united in marriage to Dr. Henry Oswald Grangaard. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Jenson, pastor of the Lutheran church, and was witnessed by only the relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Ida Hammer was the bridesmaid while Mr. Edwood Grangaard, brother of the groom, was best man. After the usual congratulations a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride is one of our little city's popular young ladies and has taken a prominent part in the religious and social life of the Lutheran church. She has a host of friends who wish her much happiness. The groom is well known to Cooperstown people, especially the "fans," formerly belonging to our ball club. He is now a practicing physician and doing nicely. The newly wedded couple left on the afternoon train for their home at Newark, Ill., where they will be at home to friends after January 1. They are followed by the hearty congratulations of their many friends in this city and county.
