

Luther Houghton left on Monday of this week for Des Moines, Iowa. We understand that Mr. Houghton is to be married today to Miss Mattie Willard, who formerly taught school in this county. . If this information is correct the Courier joins with many friends in the city wishing the young people much happiness and success in life.