

On the 30th of June, Miss Agnes Theresa Johnson and Chas. Palm were united in the bonds of holy matrimony at the bride's home. Miss Johnson is one of our esteemable young ladies and Mr. Palm is one of our prosperous young farmers. As the wedding march was played by Miss Jennie Walberg, the bridal pair marched to the altar, Rev. Hagander giving the bride away. The ceremony was performed under an arch of foliage by Rev. H. F. Josephson. The bride wore white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. Three bridesmaids and two little flower girls, dressed in white silk and carrying roses and carnations, attended her. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by three best men. After the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served. The happy pair will make their future home on a farm west of Hannaford.
