

Mr. Chas. Porterville and Miss Myrtle Bemis were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bemis in Greenview township, Steele county, N. D., on last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Mabel Hallett, of Larimore, N. D., and Mr. Byron Bemis, of Cooperstown. The ring ceremony was used by the Rev. J. Chas. Evans, of Cooperstown, the officiating clergyman. About one hundred and fifty were present to witness the nuptials. A bountiful wedding supper was served to the guests under the trees and the grounds being lighted with Chinese lanterns presented a beautiful sight. Mrs. Porterville has spent the greater portion of her life in Greenview and is a graduate of the state university. She has been teaching in Larimore during the last year and had many friends there. She is a most estimable young lady. Mr. Porterville has lived in Steele county for some time and is a very highly respected young man. The bride and groom received many very valuable and useful presents. They will go to housekeeping at once on the Chester Piatt farm. The Courier extends congratulations.
