

The following was taken from the Moorhead department of the Fargo Forum: "Last evening a license was issued to Hallie W. Wall and Olive L. Newell, of Monticello, Ill. They were accompanied by the Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Parinton, of Cooperstown, N. D. and they were witnesses of the wedding an hour later when it was solemnized by the Rev. D. McIntyre at the Columbia hotel. Mr. Parinton expected to officiate at the ceremony, the bride his adopted daughter, but he was disqualified from acting in Minnesota as his credentials were not on file according to law. The reverend gentleman is grand patron of the O. E. S. of North Dakota.
