

Carl J. Watne took a trip down into Minnesota recently and while down at Leroy took a notion to one of the fair ladies of that town and to cap the climax decided to marry her, therefore on Wednesday of last week he was united in marriage to Miss Tillie Eastwold of Leroy, Minn. Carl expects to remain down in that country for some months, probably until next fall. The Courier extends congratulations.