

A very pretty wedding took place at the fine new home of Mr. and Mrs. Thor Hagen east of town Wednesday evening, June 1st. when Mr. Dana Winsloe, of Tolna, and Mrs. Belle Hagen were united by the marriage bonds. The bridal couple entered the flowered decked parlor accompanied by Miss Ida Hagen and Mr. Arne Hagen, sister and brother of the bride, and little Thelma Upton who carried the bride's bouquet of roses and carnations. The bride was tastefully dressed in a gown of cream color trimmed in blue, while the groom wore the usual black. The ring service was very touchingly performed by the Rev. Claude M. Steele, of Hurdsfield, N. D., a fellow student and chum of the groom. About 35 guests and relatives were present, and after the ceremony an informal reception was held when all were given the opportunity of meeting the newly wedded couple. Shortly after the reception the dining room doors were thrown open and the company invited to seats where all did justice to the fine course dinner which was served. Mrs. Winsloe, who is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, has made her home in this county for a number of years, but during the last few, has been teaching in the northern part of the state. Mr. Winsloe is pastor of the Congregational church at Tolna, where they will go to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Winsloe were the recipients of many pretty and serviceable gifts for use in the new home to which they went Friday and where they will be at home to friends after June 15.
