

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Herman Hammer in this city on Thursday evening, Nov. 22, 1912, when her daughter, Miss Helen A. Hammer, was united in marriage to Mr. Emil R. Diethart, of Glen Ullin, N. D., Rev. Oscar D. Purinton being the officiating clergyman. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family. After the ceremony a wedding supper was enjoyed. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Hammer and has grown up in Griggs county where she was born. She is a very estimable young lady and has a large circle of personal friends who will wish her much good luck and happiness. The groom is a prominent young business man of Glen Ullin. The happy couple left the following day for Glen Ullin where they will settle down to housekeeping. They have the congratulations of many friends in which the Courier most heartily joins.
