

Harry E. Ewing, the genial operator of the moving picture machine at the Gem Theatre, was united in marriage last Saturday afternoon to Miss Ople M. Wardlow, of Champaign, Ill. The young lady arrived on the noon train last Saturday and at 3 p. m., visited the Methodist parsonage where Rev. Arthur Edwards spoke the words which made them man and wife. The newly wedded couple are at present domiciled at the Palace Hotel. The Courier extends congratulations to the newly weds and wishes them a happy and prosperous voyage through life.
