

MARRIED AT LISBON.

Lisbon, July 13.—Lisbon was the scene of a brilliant wedding yesterday, the event being the marriage of F. V. Hutchinson of Fargo and Miss Blanche E. Boyden of Lisbon, until recently teacher of expression at Jamestown college. The groom is the secretary-treasurer of the North Dakota School Supply Co., and the bride is the daughter of Editor C. E. Boyden of the Lisbon Free Press, both being well known in their respective cities.

The ceremony took place in the Lisbon Episcopal church at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and was performed by Rev. ~~Shore~~, assisted by President Kroeze of Jamestown College. The bride was attended by Mrs. Dr. Westley of Cooperstown and William H. Hutchinson of La-Mouer, a brother acted as best man to his brother.

Two little girls preceded the bride to the altar scattering rose petals, while another carried the ring on a silken pillow. The beautiful music of the wedding marches preceded and followed the ceremony, which was largely attended by friends at Lisbon and from other cities.

At eleven o'clock in the morning a fine wedding breakfast was served at the Bradford hotel to the wedding party and intimate friends and after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyden until train time when the happy couple started on the wedding trip which includes Duluth and Isle Royal. They will be at home in Fargo to their many friends some time after August first.

The presents were handsome and numerous and the floral decorations of exceeding beauty, both church and home being profusely trimmed.
