

er could not have been more perfect and all agree that this was one of the most beautiful weddings ever witnessed. The bride was dressed in white messaline silk with veil fastened with a wreath of lilies of the valley. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Westley of the Hannaford State bank (we might add that these parents were among the first to celebrate marriage in Griggs county) and is a young lady worth knowing and has a host of friends wherever she is known. The groom is well known in nearly all Griggs county and needs no introduction. His business capacity and accommodating ways have won him many intimate friends as well as scores of business friends. He is a careful and painstaking bookkeeper owning a large share in the Hannaford Mercantile Co.'s store. We predict and wish for this splendid couple many happy days of wedded life and just enough clouds to flavor the brightness to its best tastes.

They left Friday for a week or ten days' wedding trip to Fargo and the twin cities where they will visit relatives and friends. They expect to settle down to housekeeping in Hannaford when a suitable house has been obtained.

JUNE WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Louise Johnson to Mr. Albert Johnson took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Johnson of Sverdrup, at half after eleven, on Wednesday, June 12. Rev. H. F. Josephson solemnized the wedding.

Mrs. S. H. Sampson, sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. White carnations were her flowers. The little Misses Ione Johnson and Catherine Norman, flower girls, carried baskets of spring flowers, assisted by their little brothers. Mr. Manuel Erickson was best man.

The bride wore a gown of cream marquisette over silk with elaborations of white fringe and allover lace. Bridal roses and lilies of the valley were in her shower bouquet, and sprays of myrtle and a wreath of smilax held her veil. The groom wore the conventional black. All this together with the decorations in the rooms, and the music, was very beautiful, but the most beautiful of all, was the natural satisfied and pleasant appearance of the bridal couple. After the ceremony the guests marched to music to the grove where a buffet luncheon was served. Mr. Norman, a violinist of the Binford orchestra, accompanied by Mr. Westman, furnished the music.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nic Johnston, of Aneta; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, of Hope; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Sampson of Pingree; Mr. and Mrs. John Norman and Mr. S.

Westman of Binford, and Mr. and Mrs. Thorvald Linde of Finley.

The bride is one of our county's most popular teachers and the groom is one of Hope's prosperous young farmers. They left in the afternoon for an eastern trip to Whitehall, Mich., and other points.

Mrs. Almklov and Mrs. Hoel went across country by auto to Portland, N. D., last week where they will visit with Dr. and Mrs. Wadel for a couple of weeks.

Ladies' Furni

Long Silk Gloves
 Fancy White
 Umbrellas
 Rain Coats
 Ladies' Traveling
 Bags and Suit Cases

Thompson - M