

LADUE - CRANE WEDDING

The Following Write-up of this Event
Was Received Too Late for Last Week's Issue.

At beautiful Mandarin, the Episcopal chapel was filled yesterday forenoon with the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, when Miss Kathleen Crane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Crane of North Dakota, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Stuart Ladue of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ceremony was impressive, Bishop E. G. Weed officiating, assisted by Rev. M. Speakman, rector of the church.

For the occasion the chapel was decorated with quantities of woodland foliage and amid the wealth of greenery were American Beauty roses. The bride entered the chapel leaning on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage at the altar, where she was met by the bridegroom.

Mr. Ladue had as his best man, his cousin, Mr. Robert Stuart of New York City.

Preceding the bridal party was pretty little Miss Jacks of Mandarin, who was a dainty flower girl. The bride's attendants were her two cousins, Miss Miller of Albany and Miss Morell. The bride was beautiful in her handsome gown of white charmeuse trimmed with exquisite lace, the bridal veil being caught with a cluster of orange blossoms.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Oakeside the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Crane, who for a number of winters have come to Mandarin to remain until spring. The residence was decorated most effectively, suggestions of the holiday season forming part of the decorative scheme.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ladue of New York city and is a cousin of Mrs. Charles E. Terry of this city. Mr. Ladue is known to a large circle of friends and, while he makes his home in Brooklyn, is engaged in an extensive lumber business in New York City.

The bride also enjoys a marked popularity with the many friends she has made and is a woman of delightful personality and charm of manner. The couple were the recipients of many handsome wedding presents from their large circle of friends.

Assisting in serving the delightful refreshments at the reception at Oakeside were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Miller and Miss Fitch, sisters of Mrs. Maynard Crane, and her cousin, Miss Edith Merry. Included among those present who went over by automobile from this city, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Mollard, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Middlemas, Mr. and Mrs. William Moore Angas, Mr. Mack Angas, Mr. Howard E. Harkishelmer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orchard, Miss Della Meigs, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Terry and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Cassidey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladue left last night for Cuba, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride wearing a going away gown of dark blue cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Ladue will be at home to their friends after February 1 at their residence in Brooklyn.

All goods left from our After Inventory Sale will be closed out Saturday and Monday, Feb. 1 and 3 at The One Price Department Store.

TEACHERS' E

Notice is hereby given, that to be held at the Court House at Co February 13 and 14, 1913.

PROGRAM—THURS

Reading Rules
Preliminary
Reading