

Last Saturday was the silver anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Regner. To make the occasion one long to be remembered the ladies of the Baptist church got up a surprise party and visited the Regner home. There were about twenty in the party and the surprise was genuine, the good people of that home not having the slightest suspicion that they were to be visited in force by their friends. The ladies took along many good things to eat, and a pleasant, social time was enjoyed by those present. Some useful souvenirs were left by the visitors to remind Mr. and Mrs. Regner of the visit and on departure each one wished them many happy returns of their wedding anniversary.
