

Ernest Regnery arrived from Canada last Wednesday to visit his parents here during the holidays. To make the surprise to the home folks a little more complete he stopped at Medicine Hat long enough to marry one of the young ladies of that city, so that Mr. and Mrs. Regner have a daughter as well as a son to entertain for a time. The Courier extends its congratulations.