

THE OIE-RUUD NUPTIALS

Miss Ella Oie and Dr. Magnus B. Ruud United in Marriage on Thursday Last.

At high noon on Thursday, April the fourth, nineteen hundred and twelve, at the home of the bride's parents in Cooperstown, N. D., occurred the marriage of Miss Ella M. Oie and Dr. Magnus B. Ruud of Alexandria, Minn.

The parlor was a profusion of ferns, palms and white roses, the ceremony being performed upon an improvised altar, on either side of which, tall cathedral candles burned. The ring service was used.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Ruby Burtness of Minneapolis, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Miss Borghild Oie attended her sister as bridesmaid and Mr. Henry Ruud of Minneapolis was the best man. Rev. O. D. Purinton was the officiating clergyman.

A wedding dinner followed the ceremony, green and white being the color scheme in the dining room. Festoons of smilax and lilies of the valley were about—and immense baskets of Easter lilies formed center pieces for the tables.

The bride was attired in a gown of white charmine satin slightly en train and ornamented with duchesse lace and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore blue marquisette over pink satin.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ruud and daughter Margaret of Mahnomen, Minn., parents of the groom; Mr. Henry Ruud of the University of Minnesota, a brother of the groom; Miss Ruby Burtness, also of the University of Minnesota; Miss Emma Minier, New Richmond, Wis., and Mr. L. R. Putnam, Carrington, N. D.

Dr. and Mrs. Ruud left on the afternoon train for Minneapolis where they will spend a short honeymoon, and they will be at home to their friends after June 15, at Alexandria, Minn., where the groom is located for the practice of medicine.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Oie of this city, was born in Cooperstown and has grown up to womanhood right here. She is a young lady of a sunny, happy disposition and has a faculty of winning for herself friends. The groom is a young doctor just starting out in the medical field, having purchased a practice at Alexandria, Minn. He is a young man of fine habits, genial, and also a friend winner. The Courier wishes them a most happy and prosperous life.
