

MISS OLSON IS WEDDED

Miss Aslaug Olson of Dakota Conservatory Married Prominent Chicago Man Last Evening.

A pleasant surprise to her many friends in the city was the marriage last evening at 7:31 o'clock of Miss Aslaug Olson, a popular member of the faculty of the Dakota conservatory, which took place at the apartments of her mother, Mrs. Marie Olson, in the Colonial flats.

The man of her choice is Ernest P. Wright of Chicago, who was called to the city yesterday by the illness of his little daughter and decided that he would not return without his bride. The marriage preparations were quickly arranged and the ceremony was performed last evening by Rev. Mr. Ulvestad of the First Lutheran church.

Mrs. Wright, however, will finish her year at the conservatory, her husband returning to Chicago on Saturday. She will join him there in the spring. Her many friends wish her the happiest congratulations.—Forum.

Miss Olson was formerly a resident of Cooperstown. Her friends here will join the Courier in extending congratulations.

THE TRIALS OF A TRAVELER.

"I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt., "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25c at all druggists.

Girl wanted for general housework, small family. Apply to A. G. Hoel.