

MARRIED.

C. J. Holm and Miss E. M. Ladd were married last Saturday at 8:30 p. m. Accompanied by Miss Clara Jackson and James Uxley, they drove to Cooperstown where the ceremony took place at the Congregational parsonage, Rev. Hawley pronouncing the words.

Mr. Holm is a wheat buyer by profession and until recently was manager for the Farmers' Elevator Co. of Hannaford. Miss Ladd is principal of the Hannaford school and a highly estimable young lady. The bride's home is at Belfast, Maine.

The Enterprise hopes that the happy couple will have their path strewn with roses and that the thorns may not be in evidence.—Hannaford Enterprise.
