

Wm. D. Sturdivant was married August 23, in St. Mary's Episcopal church at Brownton, Minn., to Miss Viola E. Hawley. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and wild flowers and the happy couple marched up to the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. After the ceremony an excellent wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. In the evening the newly wedded couple departed for Hannaford, where they arrived the next morning. Mrs. Studrivant came as a stranger to this place, but she has already made a number of friends. Mr. Sturdivant has been with J. W. Copeland in his tonsorial parlor for some time past and his sterling qualities have gained for him a large circle of acquaintences who highly esteem this worthy young man.

The Enterprise extends congratulations.
