In the first grade the following were perfect in spelling for the past week: Gertrude Pfeifer, Irma Sel-dahl, Raymond Flynn, Harold Frigaard.

3d Grade, Miss Bright: The third grade won in the arithmetic contest of times tables against the fourth grade. They have challenged the 5th grade also for a spelling match.

Avaline McDermott spelled down the school last week.

4th and 5th, Miss Weed: The following pupils were standing at the close of the spelling contest with the eighth grade: Lily Johnson, Ellen Johnson, Ellen Pfeifer, Carl Bolkan, Phyllis Bowden, Willard McDermott, and Gladys Regner.

6th and 7th, Miss McCulloch: The sixth and seventh grades have organized a sewing and reading club. They will meet every two weeks on Saturday afternoon from three to 5 o'clock. Refreshments will be served at the various places of meeting. Hilda Bergstrom has been elected as president, Mabel Larson as vice-president, and Grace Hall as secretary. Grace Hall will entertain the club next week.

The High School will give a Xmas program the Wednesday before vacation. After the program a spelling contest will be held between the Sophomores and Seniors and the Freshmen and Juniors.

The sewing class is beginning its work on model sheets and pillow cases.

The Caesar class is hoping to finish the first book of the Gallic war before Xmas.

All the pupils who have had the measles except Ruth Blackwell and Earl Houghton are back in school.
