

SCHOOL NOTES.

Interesting Items Gathered at the Public Schools During the Week.

First Grade—Dorcas Lunde was the only perfect speller in the "A" class for the entire week. We had about 25 absent during the week on account of measles.

Third Grade—Aveline McDermott spelled down the whole grade. Measles have caused the absence of 21 pupils, one-half of the entire grade.

Sixth and Seventh—Edward Pfeifer enrolled Monday.

Mr. Ross and Mrs. Edmondson visited Friday.

Reynold Rearick spelled down the school one day last week.

The eighth grade defeated the seventh in their contest Friday.

The fifth grade won in the spelling contest against the sixth grade Friday afternoon. The words were taken from the geography lessons on Europe.

Miss Jackson did not return to take charge of the second grade Monday. It is believed that the bad weather was the cause of her absence.

The first and second grades and the high school were dismissed Monday morning because the building was not sufficiently heated. However, we have heard of no fatalities from the other grades.

High School—Remember the program to be given Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 24, by the Freshman and Junior classes.

Paul Hart visited Monday morning. It is hoped that he will enter his class again.

James Hazard entered the Freshman class Monday.

Gordon Lindgren, Manley Johnson, Cora Houghton and Ella Black are absent on account of the measles.

Dorrit Perrin was summoned to her sick brother at Bismarck last week.
