

School Notes.

Frank Olson entered the Junior class Monday.

Rev. J. C. Evans was a visitor in the grade rooms last week.

Miss Elsie Gimblett was a high school visitor Friday morning.

The sixth and seventh grades began shop work and sewing last week.

Third Grade. Frank McCulloch has spelled his room down four times this year.

Evelyn Josephson spelled down the seventh grade on historical words Friday afternoon.

Miss Oliver reorganized the Girls' Glee Club and several new pieces are being worked up.

Eighth Grade. Two new pupils, Clara Johnson and Paul Crawford entered school last week.

The first lessons in Manual Training and Domestic Art were given on Thursday. The students are much interested and good results are expected.

High School. The Seniors are responsible for the school notes this year and sincerely hope something will "happen" each week to enliven our columns in the papers.

First grade. Mrs. Moffatt was a welcome visitor in our room Thursday afternoon. The following pupils in the A class were perfect in spelling for the week: Arthur Williams, Herman Holland and Harold Erickson,

Lily Johnson, Ellen Pfeifer and Gladys Regner spelled the fifth grade down on the term's work. The fifth grade won in the spelling contest with the sixth grade on Friday. The contest covered words on South America.

Last week the Freshman class organized. Irene Parsons was elected president, John Alberts vice-president and Anna Lunde secretary and treasurer. Quite a discussion followed as to class colors but as they could come to no decision the matter has been dropped for the present.

The first of a series of spelling contests took place last Friday. This contest was between the fifth and sixth grades covering words on South America. The next contest will take place Friday afternoon Oct. 15. This one will be between the seventh and eighth grades and covering historical words of the early part of American history. The patrons of the schools are very earnestly invited to be present at these contests. Come and see what your boy or girl can do.
