

School Notes.

First Grade—The following children were perfect in spelling for the past week: Aileen Williams, Dorcas Lunde, Myrtle McDermott, Harold Erickson. The following were perfect in number work for the past week: Aileen Williams, Harold Erickson.

We are glad to have Robert Allen with us again after an absence of four weeks.

Second Grade—Cora Heitman, Myrtle Black, Geneva Hamre and Abner Johnson stood 100 in spelling for the entire week.

Third Grade—Aveline McDermott, spelled down the rest of the class. Rollin Lunde carried off the honors in a contest on the times tables.

Mrs. Blackwell was a third grade visitor last Friday afternoon.

The third and fourth grades had a spelling contest last Friday afternoon. The fourth grade won. Gladys Regner and Ellen Pfelfer remained standing the longest.

Seventh Grade—The pupils of the seventh grade wrote some excellent essays this last week on The Development of the American Colonies. Those deserving especial mention are Vinnie Regner, Mabel Larson and Evelyn Josephson.

Last Friday afternoon the 7th and 8th grades had a close contest over historical words of the colonial period of discovery. Grace Hall of the 7th grade and Cecil McCulloch of the 8th remained up the longest, Cecil finally carrying off the honors.

Visitors in the room that afternoon were the Mesdames Bolkan, McDermott, Melgard, Bergstrom, Tallmadge Cowen, Johnson, Hall, Rearick and the Misses Anderson and Woodbury.

High School—The music class under the supervision of Miss Ollvor have been studying the lives and works of famous composers. This week Fanny Newberry wrote a fine theme on the life, works and style of Beethoven.

We are glad to say that Conrad Herigstad has joined the ranks of the Seniors.

The Seniors elected their officers for the coming year as follows: Elsie Flynn, President; Inez Ayrea, Secretary; Fred Stevens, Treasurer.

The Senior officers for this year are: Conrad Herigstad, President; Wilhelm Vatne, Vice-President; Charlotte Moe, Secretary; Ruth Blackwell, Treasurer.

Spelling has been started in the High School for each Friday afternoon. This is a good plan as it is startling how few of the students even in the High School are good spellers.

The Boy's Glee Club was organized Tuesday consisting of the following boys: Wilhelm Vatne, Fred Stevens, Arthur Olson, Frank Baily, John Alberts, Gordon Lindgren. Howard Houghton and Frank Newberry will take their old places when they return to school. We are certainly glad to learn of the reorganization of this popular club and anticipate some excellent programs this winter.
