

SCHOOL NOTES.

High School—Ludvig Olson entered the Sophomore class and James Flynn joined the Freshman band last Monday.

Slate blackboards have been put up in the assembly room which is a great improvement.

Both the Freshmen and Sophomore classes held a meeting last Monday after school. The purpose is yet unknown.

The literary societies have been organized again. The Seniors and Sophomores form one society while the Juniors and Freshmen form the other and the officers of the different classes form the program committees and literary staffs. Cuts were drawn to decide which society should give the first program the lot falling to the Seniors and Sophomores who will give this program the fifth of November.

The Sophomore class has organized for the coming year choosing Arthur Olson, President; Milton Houghton, Vice-President and Mabel Larson; Secretary.

First Grade—The following children in the A class were perfect in spelling for the past week: Aileen Williams, Dorcas Lunde, Herman Holland, Harold Erickson. Harold Erickson and Herman Holland were also perfect in number work for the week. Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Retzlaff visited our room this week. We are glad to have the parents show an interest in our work.

Mesdames Stone, Blackwell and Steinborn visited the first and second grade rooms this week.

In the second grade Christ Vagle, Geneva Hamre, Abner Johnson, Garth Langford, Myrtle Black, Cora Heltman, Hazel Koloen, Earl Pratt, Murrel Turnipseed and Myrtle Frigaard had perfect for the week in spelling.

The second grade geography class is building an Indian village in the sand pan.

Last Friday the third grade spelled down the fourth grade. Frank McCulloch stood the longest.

Seventh Grade—Mrs. Retzlaff visited our room last Friday. Albert Bolkan and Deborah Nelson received 200 per cent in their arithmetic test for this month.

Inga Loge was enrolled in the eighth last week.
