

The stockholders of the Farmers' Elevator company held a meeting last Saturday afternoon and after canvassing the matter thoroughly decided to rebuild their elevator. It was decided to build it either of steel or concrete and a committee consisting of E. C. Butler, F. L. Barkee and F. D. Williams was appointed to go down to Minneapolis and other points to investigate the matter.