

Rev. J. M. Jensen tendered his resignation as pastor of the Lutheran church last Sunday evening. The congregation of the church held a meeting Monday evening and voted unanimously to ask Mr. Jensen to remain as pastor of the church. The Courier hopes that he can see his way clear to remain in Cooperstown. Mr. Jensen is greatly esteemed by all who know him.