

The Northern Pacific demonstration train of nine cars and containing the agricultural college exhibit pulled into town last Saturday and remained three hours. On account of it not being advertised very few farmers visited the car. The following officials were along: E. C. Blanchard, general superintendent; W. E. Alair, assistant general freight agent, Div. Supt. Burt and D. E. Willard, development agent.