

Last year the old settlers, in the midst of their program gave up to the young people who were supposed to be highly entertained by the (fake) woman in a den of snakes, the cage of death and other things equally elevating and instructive. This year let the young people turn about and help the old settlers enjoy their picnic on June 17 in the way best suited to them. A program of exercises will be given later.

Ch. Ex. Com.