

The Old Settlers Association of Steele and Griggs counties have decided to hold their next annual picnic on June 17, under the trees at the Fluto bridge, and a rattling good time is planned for the occasion.