

We hear that Chester Piatt is making another deal for a Weber gas engine to put in the electric light power house. This is a step in the right direction. The present equipment has all the work it can do now.