

The Cooperstown postoffice will not be open hereafter on Sundays. There are no mails arriving on that day and the postmaster is not required to open the office. The county is pretty well taken care of by rural routes so that country people get their mail pretty regularly.

---