

The new hotel proposition is coming along nicely, the site for the new building now being practically assured. The committee in charge of the deal expect to get the matter fixed up in a day or two and the matter settled. The new building if built will be located on the Crane corner opposite the Jimeson Cash Department Store.