

The school election Tuesday seemed to awake considerable interest, sixty-three votes being cast, which is just fifty more than were cast at the last election. Messrs. Rearick and Berg, the caucus nominees, were elected.