

The Griggs County Telephone Co. has decided to extend their system into the southern part of the county. Some of the best farmers in the county are in this section and for a year or two the telephone company have had many requests to build south and give the farmers direct communication with the county seat. Now these farmers have to pay toll to the Northwestern Telephone Co. when they want to reach a county seat doctor, business man or county official.