

The county canvassing board meets on November 18 to canvass the returns of the recent election. From unofficial figures received Mr. Rearick is elected county auditor by 93 votes over Cowen, Hoff for county treasurer has 135 over Detwiller, Tuttle for state's attorney has about 22 majority and Martin Garlid for register of deeds has a majority of 24 over Westley. The other offices there was no opposition and no record of the vote was taken.

---