

Otto Marquardt has his moving picture business running nicely now at the opera house and is giving good entertainments three times a week.