

J. B. Koppenhaver was up from his farm near Revere Monday of this week. He says that at Revere they have a depot, an elevator, lumber yard and a bank in operation. Mrs. Koppenhaver and the children are spending the winter in Iowa and in about three weeks he expects to join them and remain there until spring.