

Dedicatory services of the Mildred Hartman Memorial M. E. church in Mable township were held on Sunday last, June 4th. The Rev. J. G. Moore preached morning and afternoon two very impressive and eloquent sermons. The building was seated to its utmost capacity at both services. In the morning the children of the following parents were presented for baptism: Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, three; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jones, two; and the Rev. and Mrs. Harriss, one. The offerings for the day amounted to three hundred dollars. This is to be devoted for the purchasing of an organ and lights. The church is entirely free from debt, costing the handsome sum of $2,500. Mr. Wm. Howden presented the key of the church for dedication on behalf of the trustees. The special singing as was advertised on the program, and in our last issue, did not come to pass to the great disappointment of all, the reason was—owing to newly made grade by Wm. Howden's, the automobiles had not sufficient power to pass over the road; nevertheless Messrs. Trubshaw and King did their best to get their friends to the church in time, but their bests endeavor failed. The people of the community are to be congratulated on their success.
