

K. A. Alfstad Dead.

Last Saturday word was received that K. A. Alfstad who was operated on a week previously was very low. His wife and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Knutson, left on the east bound train for Fargo, later in the afternoon came the sad message that the old gentleman had passed away. The remains were brought back Monday and will be laid away in the McHenry cemetery. Funeral services will be held Thursday. Besides the wife, he leaves two daughters and five sons to mourn his death. The friends at Mose extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.
