

George Kyle Gladstone passed away about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 16, from heart trouble and tributary causes. Born in Gladstone Hollow, January 10, 1844, he had lived in same neighborhood for over 64 years. December 6, 1867, he married Jane Liddle, who with five children are left to mourn his loss, viz: Mrs. George A. Jester and Harrison A., in Franklin; Frank, a lawyer at Cooperstown, N. D.; Willis and Miss Ethel at home.—Andes (N. Y.) Recorder. Frank Gladstone left Cooperstown the 15th hoping to reach home in time to see his father alive; in this he was disappointed, arriving just in time for the funeral.
