

The many friends of Doctor and Mrs. Platou in Cooperstown will deeply sympathize with them over the loss of their oldest boy, Trygvar, who died at Faribault, Minn., Monday of this week from diphtheria. He was attending the Shattuck Military Academy. He was fourteen years old and was born in this city.