

Beda Maria Fosberg died Saturday afternoon, April 29, at the age of fourteen years and eight months. She was dangerously ill last fall, and at one time her life was despaired of. But she recovered and regained strength, until this spring when the disease again attacked her, and she succumbed after a brief illness. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fosberg, and has lived the greater portion of her life with her parents who reside about five miles east of Hannaford. She is survived by her parents and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Christianson, and Ellen Forsberg, and a half-brother, Carl Johan Forsberg. The funeral will take place Thursday from the Union church.—Hannaford Enterprise.
