

The following dispatch in the Fargo Courier-News under date of Feb. 13, evidently alludes to Mr. and Mrs. Ing. Wold, formerly of this city. Friends here will regret this distressing accident to the Wold family. The dispatch says: The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ingwald Wold of Woburn was found dead in his mother's arms by the nurse early in the morning. About an hour previous to the child's death, Mrs. Wold was awakened and provided for the child's wants, but had fallen asleep, only to be awakened later to learn the sad news. The cause of death is unknown.'
