

Ole Edland, one of the pioneer settlers of this county, died last Thursday after a lingering illness. The funeral services were held from the United Lutheran church and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery north of town. Mr. Edland was a man of highly religious principles, and his ripe old age was crowned with the confidence and respect of all those who know him. He leaves a wife and ten children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

---