
Another Old Settler Dead.

The old gentleman, Alfred Johnson, of Greenview township, Steele county, died at Dr. Platou's hospital in Valley City last week and was brought home on Saturday and laid to rest.

He had suffered for a long time from dropsy and had undergone several operations without being greatly benefitted.

The deceased was an early settler in the neighborhood where he lived and leaves a large family to mourn his demise.
