

The funeral of Mr. Ole Olson who died at the hospital in Cooperstown was held from the Lutheran church last Friday afternoon. Revs. E. T. Silness and O. K. Quamme officiating. Olson was at the Cooperstown Hospital for six weeks where he was tenderly cared for and everything possible done for him, but the grim reaper was relentless. The county had charge of the funeral and it was conducted with due care.