

It is reported that the 4-year-old child of J. Shobe, of Steele county, was cremated. The child had got some matches and set fire to a load of hay, the fire spreading to the barn where the little one burned to death.