

PAIGE...WHITE.

Married, Thursday, June 26th, 1890, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. White, Fargo, N. D., Mr. Lucian H. Paige to Miss Jessie White.

The above announcement was received here last Saturday by the numerous friends of the contracting parties, and although the happy event had been predicted as something that would happen ere long, yet it was not generally known that when Louie left here a few days since that he would so soon take a life partner.

Only the relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a plain white cashmere dress and a beautiful wreath of orange blossoms, which were worn by her mother at her marriage, thirty years ago. The groom wore the customary suit of black.

The groom has been a resident of Hope for a number of years, and has a friend in everyone who knows him. He is known to all as an industrious and successful business man, honest and upright in all transactions, and the bride is to be congratulated in securing such a noble young man as a husband.

The bride is very favorably known by our people, having spent some time in this vicinity last summer during which time she made many warm friends who fully appreciate her disposition and merits, and who will extend warm congratulations to the happy young couple, and wish with the PIONEER that their married life may be one blissful dream of peace and happiness.
