
Vadole—Williams.

On the evening of February 8th, the residence of Eugene Williams, of Lincoln township was again enlivened by marriage chimes. His niece, Miss Carrie A. Williams, was united in marriage to Mr. Dolphus W. Vadole, of Primrose township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. C. Heston, in the presence of some forty guests, Mr. Wm. Hazlett and wife acting as brides maid and groomsman. After congratulations were offered, all partook of a bountiful supper, such as the good people of North Dakota know how to provide. The bride looked lovely in her exquisite dress of lilac colored silk, and the groom his handsomest and happiest. A few nice presents were given the happy pair. May long life happiness be their portion.
