

---

—A fine display of Aurora Borealis was witnessed last Monday night, the brightest of the display being visible at about 10:30 o'clock. It was indeed a beautiful sight, one not seen by dwellers in the east, but the sight of which alone would be ample compensation for a visit to this glorious country, by the web-footed easterners.

---