

—The school children from a couple of outside districts participated in the march to the cemetery on Decoration day with the Hope schools. The school presided over by Miss Stauffer, of Broadlawn township, was one of them, but we were unable to learn from whence came the other.